Today, we are learning to: apply descriptive features

LO: To apply descriptive features

Today you will be writing a narrative- You will be writing about the events that happened on the day Philippe walked between the two towers.

LO: To apply descriptive features

Task 1- Go over your plan and make sure you know what sentences you're going to include in today's writing.

LO: To apply descriptive features

Task 2- In your neatest handwriting, copy this starter to get your narrative going.

Once there were two towers side by side. They were each a quarter of a mile high. The tallest buildings in New York City.

LO: To apply descriptive features

What should we include in a narrative:

- Thoughts and feelings
  - Different senses
  - Powerful adjectives
  - AD same AD sentences
  - Simile
  - Adverbial phrase
  - Speech
- Challenge- Deepen the moment by adding more depth to one of your sentences by writing about the same subject with a different sentence type.
