

English - Wednesday

We are learning...

To proof read a text

LO: To proof read a text

Now we have written our own narrative, think about what are your next steps?

LO: To proof read a text

What do we need to look for when editing and improving our work? Bullet point your ideas in your book

LO: To proof read a text

You now need to spend time looking at how you can edit and improve your story from yesterday using a different colour pen.

LO: To proof read a text

Set a timer and spend 8 minutes to focus on punctuation.

Punctuation

Have you used commas before a conjunction?

The dog was hungry, so he ate a bone.

Have you used a comma after your fronted adverbials?

After a while, the crowds parted.

Have you used two commas to mark a relative clause?

The dog, who was called Dexter, ran away.

Does every sentence finish with a full stop?

? ! . , ...

LO: To proof read a text

Set a timer and spend 8 minutes to focus on spellings.

Spelling

Have you checked all your spellings?

Use a dictionary—don't guess—use a spelling voice.

Look out for simple errors—remember your spelling rules

...i before e except after c

...is it tion or sion?

Is it cious or tious?

Do I need to double the consonant? Is the vowel lonely?

Furry, Happy, Discussion, Dinner

Change the y to an 'i and add es

LO: To proof read a text

Set a timer and spend 8 minutes to focus on vocabulary.

Vocabulary

Is your vocabulary up to a Year 4 standard?

Cold—perished, finger-numbing,

Have you used a thesaurus to improve words?

The children went outside.

The children anxiously rushed outside into the freezing, terrifying woods.

Have you challenged yourself?

LO: To proof read a text

Set a timer and spend 8 minutes to focus on sense.

Sense

Does your writing sense make?

Go and find a quiet corner and read your work out loud.

Have missed you out words sense it doesn't make?

LO: To proof read a text

Set a timer and spend 8 minutes to focus on including sentence types.

Variety of Sentences

Have you included different sentence types, accurately punctuated?

BOYS

2ad

Ad, same ad

De;de

The more, the more

LO: To proof read a text

Now, choose a section of your text to re-write including all of your edits and improvements.

Write it underneath your story.