

February 10th is Book Giving Day!

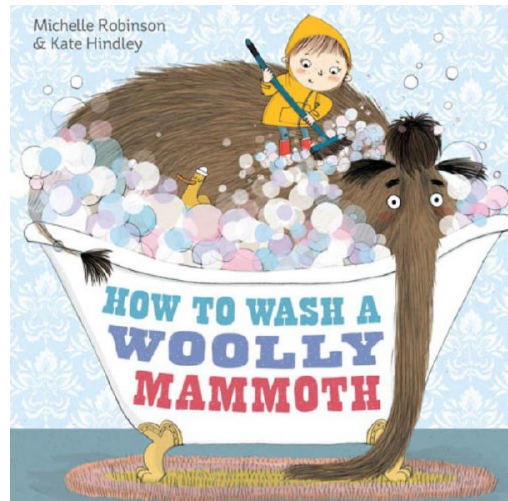

So this week we have some activities for you to choose from for your English activities at home. We have attached a copy of the story or follow the link below to hear it read out loud! Then choose one activity from the suggestions to do each day.

Write your own instructions to wash an animal of your choice.

Choose a character from the story, draw them and think of some adjectives (describing words) to describe them.

What do you know about Woolly Mammoths? What can you find out? Write down your 3 favourite facts!

Write a list of things you might need to wash an animal of your choice.

Investigate soap and bubbles in water in a bowl, sink or even have a bath! Write some words to de-

Make a poster to tell others how to keep clean and healthy. Why is it important?

Make a picture story map of the book. Maybe add some key words or captions underneath.
