

Big Talk: Jack and the Beanstalk

Thursday

Today, we are going to interview the Giant. Remember, interviews are where we ask questions so that we can find out more about someone.

What questions can we ask the giant? ✓

How do you think the giant will answer the questions? ✓

Now that you have the questions you want to ask the Giant, can you and your grown up take turns to be the Giant and the interviewer? ✓

Jack and the Beanstalk

Once upon a time there was a boy called Jack.

Jack lived in a cottage with his mother.
They were very poor and their most valuable possession was a cow.

One day, Jack's mother asked him to take the cow to market to sell.

On the way, Jack met a man who gave him some magic beans in exchange for the cow.

When Jack came home with the beans his mother was angry.
She threw the beans out of the window and sent him to bed.

The next morning, Jack looked out of the window.
A giant beanstalk had grown in the garden!

Jack decided to climb the beanstalk. It was so tall it went right up to the sky and through the clouds.

When Jack finally reached the top, he saw an enormous castle.

Jack decided to go inside; all the furniture was huge!

Suddenly, Jack heard a loud noise.
He ran into a cupboard to hide.

An enormous giant came into the room.
“Fee, Fi, Fo, Fum, I smell the blood of an Englishman!” he bellowed.

The giant sat down at the table.
On the table was a hen and a golden harp.

“Lay!” said the giant.
The hen laid an egg; it was made out of solid gold.

"Sing!" said the giant.
The harp sang; the giant fell asleep.

Jack jumped out of the cupboard and took the hen and the harp.

As Jack ran the harp cried, "Help, master!"

The giant woke up and called, "Fee, Fi, Fo, Fum, I smell the blood of an Englishman!" He chased Jack to the top of the beanstalk.

Jack climbed down the beanstalk and the giant followed him.

As Jack got to the bottom of the beanstalk he shouted, "Help!"

Jack's mother came out with an axe.
She used it to chop the bottom of the beanstalk.

The giant fell and crashed to the ground.
He was never seen again.

With the golden eggs and the magic harp,
Jack and his mother lived happily ever after.
