

March 2nd is Dr Seuss Day!

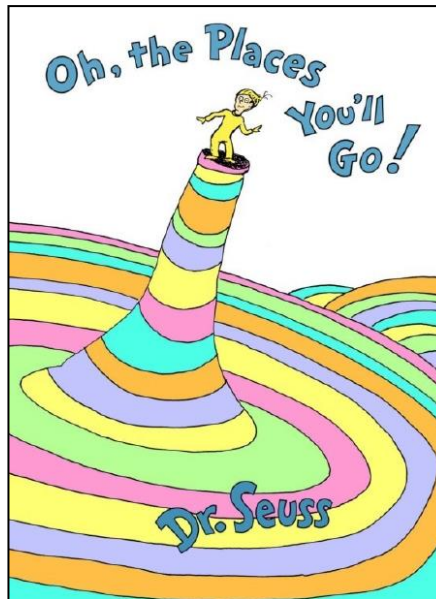

So this week we have some activities for you to choose from for your English activities at home. We have attached a copy of the story or follow the link below to hear it read out loud! Then choose one activity from the suggestions to do each day.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3U60jboHHFs>

Write about a trip you remember making. Where did you go? What was it like? What did you do? Who did you meet?

Write a list of things you might pack for a special trip of your choice. What will you need to take?

Tell us what job you would like to have when you grow up and why. Draw a picture of you doing that job!

If you could go on holiday anywhere, where would you go and why? What would you do there? How would you get there?

Draw a map of an imaginary place you would like to visit. Can you label it with some of the key places?

Dr Seuss uses lots of rhyming words. Can you spot and write down any from the story? Can you think of your own rhyming words?

Who was Dr Seuss?

Theodor Seuss Geisel, commonly known by his pen name Dr Seuss was an American children's author, illustrator and poet. Throughout his career, he wrote and illustrated over 45 books including 'The Cat in the Hat' and 'Green Eggs and Ham'.

His books were distinguished for their nonsense words, unusual characters and playful rhymes. His work has been adapted into many films, TV specials and series.

Top 5 Facts About Dr Seuss

1. Dr Seuss wasn't really a doctor and began using his title to add credibility to his writing. His real name is Theodor Seuss Geisel.
2. He wrote 'Green Eggs and Ham' after his publisher bet that he couldn't write a book using just 50 different words.
3. He had a large collection of hats whenever he had a writing block, he would put on a suitable hat to help the words flow better.
4. The original pronunciation of 'Suess' rhymes with 'voice' rather than 'juice'.
5. He won several major awards including two Academy Awards and two Emmys.

You might recognise some of his characters below!

