

English - Wednesday

Today, we are learning to: explore a narrative

What are the features of a narrative?

Now read the story

LO: To explore a narrative

Split your page into 3 columns - Setting/Character/feelings and emotions.

When watching these clips, I want you to think about the adjectives that come to mind and record them under the correct heading. Don't forget to add any adjectives you think will be useful from the story we read too!
