

English - Monday

Today, we are learning to: explore a setting

Recap- What adjectives did you use yesterday to describe New York City?

LO: To explore a setting

What can you see in this image?

LO: To explore a setting

I can see a sky scraper...

How could I describe it so the reader has a clear image in their mind?

LO: To explore a setting

What would you be able to smell and hear?

LO: To explore a setting

Philippe picked up his twenty-eight foot balancing pole and stepped onto the wire. Out to the very middle he walked, as if he were walking on the air itself.

Timed Pair Share

What can he see around him as he makes his journey across the wire?

LO: To explore a setting

Underneath the LO, you will need to gather vocabulary
to help describe this setting. Draw this table into your books and focus on the sky, houses, buildings and sea.

Nouns	Adjectives

LO: To explore a setting

Underneath your table, complete the following sentence:

Today, I explored the setting of the story 'The man who walked between the towers'. I thought carefully about.....

Think about:

- What Philippe saw
- The adjectives you came up with (what did you use to help you?)