

Wednesday - English

Today, we are learning to: form effective sentences
for a narrative

LO: To form effective sentences for a narrative

What is the purpose of a characters in a narrative? Bullet point your ideas in your book

LO: To form effective sentences for a narrative

Sentence chunk 1- Powerful adjectives

Given starter:

Philippe was a young man who was a street performer.

Teacher model:

In the distance, Philippe could see the spectacular buildings that made up New York City. He was thrilled, thrilled because he wanted to try a new trick!

LO: To form effective sentences for a narrative

Create your own complex sentences including:

Fronted adverbial (place)

AD same AD sentence

Philippe was a young man who was a street performer.

In the distance,

Philippe could see the spectacular buildings that made up New York City. Philippe was thrilled, thrilled because he wanted to try a new trick!

Challenge: Deepen the moment. Write a sentence describing Philippe's thoughts as he looked up at the two towers.

LO: To form effective sentences for a narrative

Sentence chunk 2- Emotion sentences

Given starter:

Philippe was a young man who was a street performer.

Teacher model:

Bravely, Philippe stepped out onto the rope. Terrified, he froze instantly on the spot where he stood.

LO: To form effective sentences for a narrative

Create your own complex sentences including:

Fronted adverbial

Emotion word, sentence

Philippe was a young man who was a street performer.

Bravely, Philippe stepped out onto the rope. Terrified, he froze instantly on the spot where he stood.

Challenge: Create an action sentence about how Philippe moved across the rope.

LO: To form effective sentences for a narrative

Sentence chunk 3- Thoughts

Given starter:

Philippe was a young man who was a street performer.

Teacher model:

He smiled whilst picking up his balancing pole. (Inside however, he was more nervous than he had ever been before.)

LO: To form effective sentences for a narrative

Create your own complex sentences including:

Outside. (Inside.) sentence

Philippe was a young man who was a street performer.

He smiled whilst picking up his balancing pole.

(Inside however, he was more nervous than he had ever been before.)

Challenge: Create a simile about how brave Philippe was.